

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY NYU MPH PROGRAM

GLOBAL HEALTH LEADERSHIP CONCENTRATION

PRACTICUM PLANNING WORKSHEET

This form can be used by NYU MPH Global Health Leadership students as a tool when seeking practicums (strongly recommended). Please note: this PDF version is for reference only. Please complete this worksheet online at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/PracticumPlanningWorksheet>.

Student's Name: _____ Date: _____

Global Public Health Interests:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Practicum Goals:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Types of Agencies<sup>1</sup>:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

---

<sup>1</sup> Considerations may include: A) Size of organization, B) Location: Overseas; United States; NYC, C) Type: Government Agency, Bilateral Agency, Multilateral Agency, Non-governmental organization, Community-based organization, Think tank/research, Academia, Corporate Philanthropy / Private sector, Foundation, Faith-Based organization, D) Position/function: Research / evaluation; Fieldwork; Policy; Advocacy; Training, etc., E) Mission/vision of agency, F) Organizational "fit" / culture.

Types of individuals you would like to shadow:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Desired Outcome(s) of Practicum<sup>2</sup>:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Other Questions to Consider:

When do I want to do a practicum and how many hours/weeks/months am I available?

Do I want to travel for my practicum? If so, where (or where not)?

Will I consider both paid and unpaid practicums?

Do I want to find a practicum through an existing posting or do I want to create one on my own?

Please submit a 250 word paragraph about your experience, skills, interests, and career goals:

---

<sup>2</sup> Considerations may include: A) Exposure to a new field, B) Learn a new skill, C) Use an area of expertise in a new setting, D) Gain networking connections, E) Add work experience to a resume, F) Serve as entry point to full-time position, G) Gain “field” experience.